The funds are to enable states to deal more effectively with both the child victim and the offender, and to limit additional trauma to the child victim and the victim's family. To be eligible for CJA funds, states must be eligible for the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA) Basic State Grant, and are required to establish and maintain a multidisciplinary task force on children's justice. The Children's Justice Task Force is to be comprised of representatives from specified, selected disciplines involved in the handling of child abuse and neglect (CAN) cases. Currently, the State of Hawai'i meets these requirements.

STATE OF HAWAII
NOTICE OF AND REQUEST FOR
EXEMPTION FROM CHAPTER 103F, HRS

6. Describe how procurement by competitive means is either not practicable or not advantageous to the State:

The State of Hawai'i, in order to receive Federal Children's Justice Grant funds, has assured in its statewide plan that it will maintain a Children's Justice Task Force (CJTF), with required multidisciplinary and statewide representation. The CJTF is to be comprised of representatives from specified, selected disciplines involved in the handling of child abuse and neglect (CAN) cases. To meet the requirements, the CJTF includes statewide county-based committees. Currently, the State of Hawai'i meets these requirement.

It is not efficient to design a request for proposal (RFP) for this service because funds are being used to maintain the specific task force that is already in place. The Children's Justice Task Force is knowledgeable and efficient in carrying out its responsibilities, due mainly to its ongoing involvement, since the beginning of the award of this grant to the State of Hawai'i

The amount of funds provided through the grant is small, due to the fact that the annual amount of $103,965.00 is divided equally amongst all counties in the State of Hawai'i. Each regional committee has decision-making powers to use the funds for specific training needs and implementation of programs to improve service delivery.

7. Describe the reason for the selection of the provider including a description of how the procedure ensured the maximum fair and open competition practicable:

Hawai'i has a statewide Children's Justice Task Force, which is comprised of a representative from each of the counties "local" Task Forces. Additionally, all counties (City and County of Honolulu, on O'ahu; Maui County; Kaua'i County; Hawai'i County, including East Hawai'i and West Hawai'i, on the Big Island) have Task Forces comprised of representatives from each of the required CAPTA disciplines. These include law enforcement, civil and criminal court judges, prosecuting attorneys, defense/parent councils, child advocates, guardians-ad-litem for children, health professionals, mental health professionals (including those working with children with disabilities), Child Welfare Services (CWS), parent group representatives, and others. The committees assess and address the system's needs within their communities in partnership with the Children's Justice Centers of Hawai'i. They collaborate on training and other activities to improve the State of Hawai'i's response to child abuse.

The Kaua'i and Maui Committees have established statuses as non-profits, 501c3s. The fiduciary for the counties of the City and County of Honolulu, for O'ahu, and the Hawai'i County, for the Big Island, is designated as Kaua'i Children's Justice Committee (KCJC). This agreement is necessary as the O'ahu and Big Island (East Hawai'i and West Hawai'i) Task Forces are sub-committees of their Children's Justice Centers, which are State Judiciary Programs. The Kaua'i Children's Justice Committee has the infrastructure, knowledge, and staff to carry out the task of fiduciary.

8. Describe the state agency's internal controls and approval requirements for the exempted procurement:

The Department of Human Services (DHS), Purchase of Service-Grant Management (POS-GM) Unit has direct responsibility over the contract. The Children's Justice Committees on each island are required to submit semi-annual activity reports and expenditure reports to the POS-GM Unit for review monitoring by the POS-GM Program Specialist. Expenditure reports are also submitted to the Accounting Department of the Fiscal Management Office (FMO).

An annual report from Children Justice Task Force is also provided to the Federal Government in compliance with its (Federal Government's) requirements

9. List the state agency personnel, by position title, who will be involved in the approval process and administration of the contract:

Cynthia S. Pierce, Program Specialist, Purchase of Service-Grant (POS-GM) Unit

Barbara Yamashita, Acting Administrator, Social Services Division (SSD)

Patricia McManaman, Director, Department of Human Services (DHS)
