STATE OF HAWAII

It delivers a constant shock level of 7,500 volts with a safety factor of less than one millilamp, which is perfect for high stress scenarios.

6. Describe in detail the following:
a. The unique features, characteristics, or capabilities of the goods, service or construction.
The Shockknives provides unique edged weapon training. It delivers a constant shock level of 7,500 volts and a safety factor of less than a millilamp, perfect for high stress scenarios. It uses a painless shock to provide feedback when the technique needs correction. A real knife attack causes the body to respond with the "fight or flight" syndrome. That acute stress is replicated during training by setting the SK-2 shock level to extreme. The SK-2 delivers a powerful shock upon contact allowing recognition of where and when they are exposed to the attack. The SK-2's four shock level settings range from low to extreme, and will provide unique incremental stress training. The SK-2 will create fear responses to allow the opportunity to simulate and study realistic edged weapon attacks. The training knife will prepare our officers to survive an edged weapon attack. By providing adequate training, the Department will be protected from liabilities.
b. How the unique features, characteristics or capabilities of the goods, service or construction are essential for the department
The Shockknives provides unique edged weapon training. It replicates a real knife attack in training scenarios and provides essential and relevant trainings. The training knives will enable our edged weapon training to deliver adequate training, thus protecting the Department from liabilities.
