- Managed Network Transport for Quality of Service
- Managed Network Endpoint includes T1 Router and Firewall
- Content Filtering Subscription
- 24/7 Monitoring and On-Site Support
- Includes Hosted PBX Service

9. Essential features. How the unique features, characteristics, or capabilities are essential for the agency to accomplish its work: The Dialogix Integrated Internet service is essential to HYCA to support daily Academy voice and data requirements :
1. The managed aspect of the service allows HYCA to utilize advanced technology without having to staff up to support it. Our IT Administrator is occasionally unavailable due to active National Guard duty requirements
.2. Dialogix provide the T1 endpoint and manage it. HYCA will not have to procure and manage an expensive T1 router and firewall equipment. The 24/7 monitoring of their service will ensure that if there is a service outage, Dialogix will respond within 4 hours. This is critical for HYCA particular needs. From past experiences, service outages have not been repaired for more than 1 day. In some case, it interrupts our mission and compromise the learning enviroment of the academy.
Dialogix is strongly endorsed by the State Civil Defense Telecommunications Officer. It provides HYCA a managed solution for voice mail and data operations in an area where information support infrastructure is obsolete and barebones.

11. Alternate source. The following other possible sources for the good, service, or construction were investigated but do not meet our needs because: T1 Internet services are available from other carriers but not Integrated Internet service that includes the features and capabilities that meet the requirements of HYCA. Presently YCA campus at Kalaeloa is using the Internet service provided by Dialogix Telecopm. The managing aspect of the service, in particular to the extent provided by Dialogix, is not available from any other carriers.

The department is advised to procure using the appropriate method of procurement or as applicable small purchases in accordance with Procurement Circular No. 2009-15, specifying the requirements for internet services including management of the services.
