17. Payments to the non-Medicaid Rehabilitation Option (“MRO”) contracted providers.

B. Planning activities conducted in preparation for this RFP

The DIVISION published a Request for Information on December 18, 2012, seeking the public’s input on the design of this service for statewide services, the availability of potential service providers, staffing capabilities for services and culturally specific service capabilities.

C. Description of the goals of the service

Hawai'i's adult mental health service delivery system is based on the concept of recovery, that consumers can lead fulfilling lives even in the presence of a severe and persistent mental illness. Services are focused on the need of the individual, not only on symptom relief and stabilization, but on consumer empowerment and the skills needed to lead satisfying, hopeful and contributing lives.

The goals of the services described in this RFP include, but are not limited to: reduction of hospitalization, increase of independent functioning, and decrease of contact with the criminal justice system through the effective outreach to and engagement of consumers who are homeless or at risk for homelessness. These goals are met through the achievement of outcome measures which affect the consumer, and of performance indicators which are benchmarks for programs.

The goal of this program is to connect homeless consumers with mental health services and other resources to assist them in moving to transitional or permanent housing.

D. Description of the target population to be served

Adults, 18 years and older, with severe and persistent mental illness who meet DIVISION eligibility criteria.

E. Geographic coverage of service

Statewide.

Applicants may apply for one (1) or more islands or by county of any island. The applicant shall demonstrate capacity to provide the required services in the service area for which they are applying. Applicants shall also specify the number of consumers they intend to serve per county.

F. Probable funding amounts, source, and period of availability

The source of funding is state funds or a combination of state and federal funds. Both profit and non-profit organizations are eligible for state funds. Please note that based on the availability of funds, the amount allocated to applicants who are awarded contracts may change.

The DIVISION considers itself the payer of last resort, and expects applicants to seek and obtain third party reimbursement as applicable. (See section on Financial Requirements, Third Party Liability.)

If a provider materially fails to comply with terms and conditions of the contract, the DIVISION may, as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Temporarily withhold new referrals pending correction of a deficiency or a non-submission of a report by a provider.
2. Disallow all or part of the cost.
3. Restrict, suspend or terminate the contract.

In the event that additional funds become available for similar services, the DEPARTMENT reserves the right to increase funding amounts, drawing from other possible funding sources, such as state or federal grants.

From time to time, the DIVISION may seek outside funding opportunities to transform its existing public mental health services into an improved system of care. Providers of this service may be asked to participate in these opportunities, with funding sources to include, but not be limited to, federal, state, county, and private foundations.

Competition is encouraged among as many applicants as possible.

The DIVISION shall describe the information that is to be provided and explain the procedures to be followed through the DIVISION staff and in its printed material. The provider shall also explain the information and the procedures to be followed by the consumers during the orientation process.

It is expected that not all consumers will remember to or be able to provide information on changes to their status. Therefore, it is important for the provider to obtain and forward such information to the DIVISION on a timely basis and inform the consumer of his/her responsibility to report changes to their case manager.

The provider shall provide any evidence it has on the suspicious billing practices (unusual billing patterns, services not rendered as billed and same services billed differently and/or separately). If the billing has not been done appropriately and the provider does not believe the inappropriate billing meets the definition of fraud (i.e., no intention to defraud), the provider shall notify the DIVISION in writing of its findings, adjustments made to billings, and education and training provided to prevent future occurrences.

Any suspected case of physical, emotional or financial abuse or neglect of a consumer who is a dependent adult must be reported by the provider to Adult Protective Services, or of a child to Child Welfare Services, and to the DIVISION immediately upon discovery.

- j. All reimbursements for services shall be subject to review by the DIVISION or its agent(s) for medical necessity and appropriateness, respectively. The DIVISION or its agents shall be provided access to medical records and documentation relevant to such a review and the provider agrees to provide access to all requested medical records/documents. It is the responsibility of the provider to ensure that its subcontractors and providers also provide DIVISION and its agents access to requested medical records/documents. The DIVISION has final determination in what is considered a necessary, reimbursable service.

Subcontractors and contractors shall also be bound by this requirement and it is the responsibility of the provider to ensure compliance with this requirement.

The provider shall obtain, maintain, and keep in force throughout the period of this Contract the following types of insurance:

For general liability, automobile liability, and professional liability insurance, the insurance coverage shall be primary and shall cover the insured for all work to be performed under the contract, including changes, and all work performed incidental thereto or directly or indirectly connected therewith. The provider shall maintain in effect this liability insurance until the State has certified that the provider's work under the contract has been completed satisfactorily.

Prior to or upon execution of the contract, the provider shall obtain a certificate of insurance verifying the existence of the necessary insurance coverage in the amounts stated above. The parties agree that the certificate of insurance shall be attached and be made a part of the contract.

2.4 Scope of Work

A. Service Activities

(Minimum and/or mandatory tasks and responsibilities)

Outreach is the initial and most critical step in connecting or reconnecting homeless persons with severe mental illness, who are not currently engaged in treatment. Unlike facility-based mental health services, most outreach programs for homeless people literally take place in the streets. The homeless specialist may offer a cup of coffee and listen to a homeless person's concerns as the first step in connecting him or her to needed mental health, physical health, social welfare, and housing services. It is through the use of these "non-traditional" methods of outreach and engagement that trust is established with these consumers to eventually link them with needed services.

Engagement is a crucial process. It is a process to establish a trusting relationship between the homeless specialist and the consumer. Engagement reduces fears and builds trust so that the homeless specialist can conduct an assessment of the consumer's needs. The engagement process can be lengthy. To be successful, outreach efforts must be assertive, tailored to the needs and perception of the individual.

Effectively engaging homeless consumers and initiating outreach efforts is the first step toward receiving more formal mental health services. Once adequate rapport and trust is established between the homeless specialist and the consumer, transition into the formal system of mental health services may commence. This transition period provides a progression towards this more formal system of care, and constitutes a gentle transition to another level of service.

The goal of this program is to connect homeless consumers with mental health services and other resources to assist them in moving to transitional or permanent housing.

The applicant shall provide the following Homeless Outreach services:

1. Have a policy that emphasizes a welcoming, empathic, and integrated approach to working with consumers with co-occurring substance and mental illness.
2. Provide assertive outreach services for consumers in a setting where these consumers feel secure and comfortable. The primary settings for outreach to occur include streets, parks, beaches, or other unsheltered locations homeless individuals are known to congregate.
3. Provide a homeless specialist who shall work flexible hours to reach and establish contact with consumers.
4. Provide case finding and outreach to consumers for the purpose of linking them to services including, but not limited to, entitlements, food, clothing, other personal necessities, and housing including assistance to apply for Federal, State, City, or County rental subsidies including, but not limited to, the Bridge Subsidy, Shelter Plus Care, Section 8, or Section 811, medical treatment, mental health treatment, dental treatment, substance abuse treatment, job training, and other services as needed.
5. Register eligible consumers with the DIVISION and provide the linkage between the consumer, mental health, and other community services. Upon the consumer's registration with the DIVISION, the homeless specialist shall provide ongoing outreach and coordination services for that consumer.

6. Respond to all outreach requests from the DIVISION involving homeless consumers requiring service assistance.
7. Link all consumers who are deemed ready for referral by the homeless specialist to the CENTERS for an Eligibility Determination by contacting the ACCESS line.
8. Provide case monitoring, service coordination, collateral contacts, and advocacy on behalf of the consumer through face-to-face or telephone contacts to consumers registered with the provider.
9. Ensure the incorporation of the following components within the provision of services:
 - a. Completion of an intake assessment for each consumer in need of ongoing outreach services.
 - b. Development of an Individualized Recovery Plan (IRP) which includes the following components:
 - 1) The consumer's perception of issues, problems needs and preferences; and
 - 2) The services to be rendered by the homeless specialist
 - c. Documentation of each consumer's progress towards identified goals, interventions and results, including transition into formal mental health services.
10. Collaborate with case management and other programs that provide services to homeless, severely mentally ill consumers
11. Incorporate recovery as a personal process of empowerment in overcoming the negative impact of a psychiatric disability and substance abuse disorder, and instilling hope and maximum independence despite continued presence of illness.

In most cases, the single point of accountability will be the DIVISION designated case manager.
- d. All consumers shall be registered for services and have a record open within the DIVISION'S information system. When requested by the DIVISION, the provider shall obtain and provide the information necessary to register, open, confirm DIVISION eligibility status, and monitor services received.

- e. The provider shall cooperate with the coordination and the transition of services for newly enrolled consumers with the consumer's current DIVISION provider, Medicaid fee-for-service provider, and/or a QUEST Expanded Access health plan, since many of the eligible consumers already have an established behavioral health care provider.

Housing Providers shall establish a clear and consistently applied schedule of fees required from consumers, which outline the cost of rent, security deposit and any other fees for incidental needs such as toiletries and personal use items which the consumer will be responsible for. This fee schedule shall clearly outline the process for refunding of the consumer's security deposit when the consumer moves out of the home.
- h. The provider shall negotiate and develop written agreements, as deemed appropriate, which shall be approved by the DIVISION, with the following parties, which may include, but not be limited to, hospital facilities, CENTERS and other DIVISION purchase of service providers.

- i. The provider shall collaborate with the DIVISION to facilitate outcome evaluation. This collaboration shall involve cooperation in the administration of a consumer satisfaction survey.

However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the “Name” line. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA)” name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the “Name” line and any business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA) name” on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the “Name” line. The name of the entity entered on the “Name” line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the “Name” line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the “Name” line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the “Name” line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the “Name” line is an LLC, check the “Limited liability company” box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter “P” for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter “C” for C corporation or “S” for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the “Name” line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the “Name” line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
